

MUNDANE ADVENTURES

This book is a small compilation of comics I made for fun inspired by my day to day life, and the people in it.

Following this will be another compilation of pages from the various sketchbooks - or whatever paper I could get my hands on at the time - I have kept over the course of my three years in the Illustration program (apologies in advance for the poor scan quality). It includes process, studies, life drawings, and just whatever random thoughts and doodles that might make it onto the page.

You might also be able to spot some of the comic characters in the sketchbook pages!

Hope you enjoy,

Alice

p.s. At the end of this book you can find some of my 3d work!

The town is built on a cliff
and the houses are built into the cliff face.

There is a small
church in the town.

MONTREAL DOGSPOTTING

M MONTREAL CITY DOGSPOTTING

The first had a thick knotted hat Unusually thick. He had a small soul wrapped around his neck,
with both ends dangling down at more or less equal lengths. It didn't bother him too much when they were unequal, but if he had ~~at~~ a moment to spare, he would rearrange it. His cloak draped down around him, and created a bell shape. You could get a peek of more layers underneath, full of brightly coloured ~~and~~ and patterned fabrics. He didn't speak much on a regular basis, but if you got him going about something he liked, he could talk for hours!

"Miss, why is your hat so thick?" a boy said.
"Wouldn't you like to know," responded First.
The little boy blinked in surprise.
"Why yes! I would like to know! That's why I asked, isn't it?" he said, more full of that arrogance that little children gain when they realize basic logic.

3D Work

If I need to illustrate a particularly complex scene perspective wise, I'll build it in 3d first. This one was made in 3dsMAX, but for the others I used Mudbox, Blender, and MagicaVoxel.

The End

If you've actually gotten to the end of these 150 pages, wow! I'd like to thank you sincerely for taking an interest in my work enough to flip through that many pages of it. If you'd like to see some more, you can find me on Instagram or Behance @ecilagan

Sometimes I'll post stuff on there that doesn't quite fit into the frame of illustration, like woodcarving or some 3d work. Hope to see you there and have a pleasant rest of day or evening!
